

Essential Resources for Students – Columbia University Medical Center

*For an extended resource list, please visit universitylife.columbia.edu/student-life/health-wellness.*

*For assistance with gender-based misconduct and Title IX resources, please visit sexualrespect.columbia.edu.*

In addition to the resources listed here, faculty members can always contact a students' adviser or a student affairs staff member.

RESOURCE	SERVICE	LOCATION	PHONE
Counseling Services  cumc.columbia.edu/student-health/mental-health-services	Trauma support and short-term counseling, referral for ongoing mental health services, and student support groups.	Bard Haven Tower Suite 1D (60 Haven Ave. between 169th and 170th St.)	212-305-3400 After hours, press 7
Health Services  cumc.columbia.edu/student-health	Routine and urgent medical assistance, sexual health, reproductive and gynecological services, LGBTQ health care, and confidential HIV testing are available.	Bard Hall, Lobby Level Suite B234 (50 Haven Ave. between 169th & 170th St.)	212-305-3400 After hours, press 7
Public Safety  publicsafety.columbia.edu	Emergency response, assistance with law enforcement, and campus security escorts.	109 Black Building (650 W. 168 th St./ Fort Washington)	212-305-7979
Disability Services  cumc.columbia.edu/student-health/especially/disability-services	Equal access for students with disabilities, accommodations and support services are available. Students are required to register with the office .	105 Bard Hall (50 Haven Ave./between 169th & 170th)	212-304-7029
International Students and Scholars Office  isso.columbia.edu	ISSO staff assist Columbia's international students, interns, and scholars with regulatory and immigration requirements, as well as University policies and practices.	650 West 168th Street, 1st Floor, Room 126B 212-305-8165	212-305-8165
Pastoral and Spiritual Counseling  ouc.columbia.edu	Faith-based support and identity-based counseling, on-campus worship, on-call clergy and other programs from the Office of the University Chaplain. No personal religious affiliation required.	Morningside Campus Lerner Hall, 7th Floor (Broadway/115th)	212-854-1493

For Barnard student resources, see the Student Services tab at Barnard.edu.

Still need assistance? We can help point you in the right direction.