

IMPORTANT RESOURCES FOR FACULTY, RESEARCHERS AND STAFF (Fall 2022)

Topic	What to Know	Where to Go
Academic integrity / cheating	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each school has a process to ensure fair inquiry and appropriate consequences if necessary. • If you suspect or discover cheating, contact the academic integrity point-person or student affairs office in your department or school. 	For undergraduate & select graduate schools: Student Conduct and Community Standards 212-854-6872 studentconduct.columbia.edu or Student Affairs office in your school
Benefits / Human resources information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Columbia Benefits Service Center is the point of contact for inquiries about medical and dental coverage, retirement, tuition programs and disability. • The Human Resources Service Center provides information about payroll and accounting, employment applications and verification, and other policies and procedures. • Your department administrator or HR point person also can assist with questions. 	Columbia Benefits Service Center 212-851-7000 hrbenefits@columbia.edu humanresources.columbia.edu/askhr Human Resources Service Center 212-851-2888 CUIMC: 212-305-HELP (4357), Option 1 cumchr@cumc.columbia.edu cumc.columbia.edu/hr
Community safety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In an emergency, dial 911 or contact Columbia University Public Safety (24/7/365). • Columbia Public Safety provides emergency response, assistance with personal threats, security escorts, lost and found, and assistance with law enforcement. 	Public Safety Morningside: Main Line: 212-854-2797 Emergency Line: 212-854-5555 Medical Center: Main Line: 212-305-8100 Emergency Line: 212-305-7979 Manhattanville: Main Line: 212-853-3301 Emergency Line: 212-853-3333 publicsafety.columbia.edu

1150 Amsterdam Ave., 208 Philosophy Hall, New York, NY 10027
universitylife@columbia.edu | 212-853-1628

IMPORTANT RESOURCES FOR FACULTY, RESEARCHERS AND STAFF (Fall 2022)

Topic	What to Know	Where to Go
Disability accommodations for students	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You can contact Disability Services or students can provide an accommodations memo from Disability Services. Disability Services also assists with accessibility for events and course materials. For pregnancy-related accommodations, please contact the Title IX Coordinator (see Gender-based misconduct involving students, below, for contact information). 	Disability Services Morningside 212-854-2388 CUIMC 212-304-7029 health.columbia.edu/content/disability-services
Discrimination involving students or employees (includes hostile work environment) - and - Gender-based misconduct involving employees	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Columbia prohibits all forms of discrimination and discriminatory harassment based on race, sex, age, disability, national origin, sexual orientation, gender and other protected categories. All policies are on EOAA's website. Faculty, research officers and staff may not have a romantic or sexual relationship with any undergraduate student (including undergraduate student employees and volunteers), regardless of whether they supervise the student. Faculty, research officers and staff may not have a romantic or sexual relationship with any graduate student over whom they exercise academic or professional authority. Faculty, research officer and staff responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> All have a duty to report discrimination, harassment and related misconduct toward 	Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action (EOAA) 212-854-5511 eoaa@columbia.edu eoaa.columbia.edu Title IX Coordinator, Marjory Fisher 212-853-1276 917-509-0405 titleix@columbia.edu mdf2166@columbia.edu

1150 Amsterdam Ave., 208 Philosophy Hall, New York, NY 10027

universitylife@columbia.edu | 212-853-1628

IMPORTANT RESOURCES FOR FACULTY, RESEARCHERS AND STAFF (Fall 2022)

Topic	What to Know	Where to Go
	students to EOAA. (For gender-based misconduct involving students, see below.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The University asks all faculty, research officers and staff to report prohibited conduct involving employees or third parties to EOAA and/or your designated Human Resources representative. • All who have supervisory responsibility are required to report prohibited conduct involving anyone at Columbia to EOAA, and are responsible for acting to prevent discrimination and harassment, including responding promptly and thoroughly to these types of claims.
Gender-based misconduct involving students (includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, intimate partner violence, stalking)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inform the student that you have a responsibility to report what they've shared to Student Conduct and Community Standards; staff there will contact them with resources and information. It is the student's choice whether to participate in an investigation, if one occurs. • Provide information about Columbia resources from the Sexual Respect website. • File a report so that the student can be assisted, even if the incident occurred off campus or with a non-affiliate. 	For resources and reporting: sexualrespect.columbia.edu or call/email: Student Conduct and Community Standards 212-854-6872 Title IX Coordinator, Marjory Fisher 917-509-0405 mdf2166@columbia.edu 212-853-1276 titleix@columbia.edu
Non-binary and transgender student concerns	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students can register preferred names, which will appear on course rosters. 	LGBTQ+ Resource Guide: https://provost.columbia.edu/content/columbia-university-lgbtq-resource-guide

1150 Amsterdam Ave., 208 Philosophy Hall, New York, NY 10027
universitylife@columbia.edu | 212-853-1628

IMPORTANT RESOURCES FOR FACULTY, RESEARCHERS AND STAFF (Fall 2022)

Topic	What to Know	Where to Go
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Restroom policy: All may use restrooms that are most consistent with their gender identity; campus maps include single-user and gender-neutral restrooms. 	Pronouns in Use: https://universitylife.columbia.edu/pronouns Preferred Name Policy: https://www.registrar.columbia.edu/content/faq-preferred-name-policy
Hotline for compliance concerns	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The University's compliance hotline is a confidential channel, by phone and web-based, for employees to report or seek guidance on possible compliance issues. It is supported by a third-party vendor and staffed by professionals. It includes an option to report concerns anonymously. 	Compliance Hotline: 1-866-627-3768 (24/7) For non-immediate issues: https://secure.ethicspoint.com/domain/media/en/gui/65473/index.html
Immigration / Undocumented student concerns	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The International Students and Scholars Office (ISSO) is the go-to resource for international students and visiting professors and researchers. For undocumented/DACA student concerns and resources, contact the Office of University Life. 	ISSO Offices Students at Morningside: 212-854-3587 https://isso.columbia.edu/content/contact-morningside-student-services Scholars at Morningside: https://isso.columbia.edu/content/meet-scholar-team CUIMC: 212-305-8165 https://isso.columbia.edu/content/contact-cumc-student-scholar-services isso@columbia.edu
Inclusive teaching	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Center for Teaching and Learning offers resources, workshops and individualized consultation. 	Center for Teaching and Learning: https://ctl.columbia.edu/ columbiactl@columbia.edu

1150 Amsterdam Ave., 208 Philosophy Hall, New York, NY 10027
universitylife@columbia.edu | 212-853-1628

IMPORTANT RESOURCES FOR FACULTY, RESEARCHERS AND STAFF (Fall 2022)

Topic	What to Know	Where to Go
Mental health (includes alcohol/drug abuse)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recognizing students in distress and connecting them to services is critically important. You can speak with the student, a student affairs administrator, or consult directly with Counseling and Psychological Services / Mental Health Services. Behavioral red flags may include repeatedly missing class, frequently being unprepared, and a noticeable decline in participation. 	Counseling & Psychological Services (Morningside): http://health.columbia.edu/counseling-and-psychological-services Student Health on Haven (CUIMC): https://www.studenthealth.cuimc.columbia.edu/our-services/individual-counseling Undergraduate Well-Being: http://wellbeing.columbia.edu/resources Collected resources to share with students: https://universitylife.columbia.edu/mental-health-resources
Ombuds / Confidential questions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The University Ombuds Office is a confidential place to discuss workplace and academic concerns, policies and procedures and many other issues. Ombuds serve faculty, students, staff and alumni and are not part of any formal University process. 	Ombuds Office Morningside: 660 Schermerhorn Ext. (212) 854-1234 CUIMC: 154 Haven Ave. Room 412 (212) 304-7026 http://ombuds.columbia.edu
Research misconduct	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The University defines research misconduct, in accordance with federal policy, as any fabrication, falsification or plagiarism in proposing, performing or reviewing research or in the reporting of research results. The Office of Research Compliance and Training is the place to go for concerns or questions, including hypothetical situations. 	University Compliance Hotline: 1-866-627-3768 VP for Research Compliance, Training, and Policy, Naomi J. Shrag, JD (212) 854-8123 ns2333@columbia.edu

IMPORTANT RESOURCES FOR FACULTY, RESEARCHERS AND STAFF (Fall 2022)

Topic	What to Know	Where to Go
Veterans, active military service members, and their dependents	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student Financial Services and the School of General studies handle resources, policies, and procedures for veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces. • Research and psychological services also are available through the Resilience Center for Veterans and Families at Teachers College. • The Columbia University Center for Veteran Transition and Integration provides programming and support for veterans transitioning to colleges, graduate and professional schools, civilian life, and the workforce. 	School of General Studies Resources https://gs.columbia.edu/content/us-military-veterans Student Financial Services for Veterans & Service Members https://www.sfs.columbia.edu/departments/veterans-service Resilience Center for Veterans & Families https://www.tc.columbia.edu/resiliencecenter/ Center for Veteran Transition and Integration http://veterans.columbia.edu/