A. What time is it?

Time to start making connections with alumni and take the stress out of networking.

Bring your smile and chat a while with the CAA behind the sundial.

B. From the sundial here's your track:

Walk directly south, don't look back! Through the doors, look toward the stairs.

You'll see Athena looming there. Explore around and say hello - We're friendly helpers you'll want to know! While this is the largest holder of books, there are plenty of other stacks and nooks. Sometime soon, visit at least one more place that could be your perfect study space.

Counseling & Psychological Services and Sexual Violence Response are located on the 7th and 8th floors of this building that features a large glass wall designed by architect Bernard Tschumi, a dining hall and a theatre. Find the table on the ramps at the vibrant center of student life on the Morningside campus.

D. Within walls of print, every nook a hint. Secrets on shelves, a universe to explore Pages and shirts unfold at this magical store. What am I?

E. Our name is like a TV show. Students are at the center of what we do, even though we're not at the center of campus. When you need support, we can intervene too. In between Sweetgreen and Riverside Park, come find us on the 8th and 9th floors of Watson Hall!
